

SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

Professional Summary

Enthusiastic and self-motivated professional, with experience as a youth worker, seeks an opportunity to enhance existing skills in working with vulnerable children and families. I am familiar with the challenges and difficulties that children living in stressful family situations face and am keen to offer support that facilitates lasting change. In my work with students, I have direct experience of the impact of abuse and neglect on children's development and functioning. I wish to work in partnership with other professionals to ensure that children grow up to achieve their full potential in safe, loving environments whether that is at home with their birth family or in alternative settings.
