

CREATIVE GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Summary

After reviewing your post with much interest, please take into consideration my qualifications and work experiences in your search. As an exceptionally versatile Graphic Designer/Artist, with 19 years of expertise in marketing, advertising, packaging and publishing; working for a variety of industries in medical, education, B2C and Corporate. My objective now, is to find a position that will utilize my abilities, challenge and expand upon my creativeness and knowledge; while I provide my artistic assets in art and design to the benefit of an organization such as yours.

My skill set includes designing from concept all the way through to production, high-end catalogs, advertisements, brochures, trade show graphics, posters, packaging, direct mailers, presentations, medical journals, educational books and more. Utilizing Adobe CS6, Acrobat Professional and I-Books Author. In addition to, Microsoft Office, various databases, time management and soft-skill applications on both Mac and PC operating systems. From the School of Visual Arts, I received a Bachelor of Fine Arts with a major in Illustration and a minor in Computer Arts.

I am a resourceful, reliable self-starter; whether collaborating within a team environment or working independently with minimal supervision. Every assignment big or small is performed with a love for art and design from start to finish and attention to detail and deadlines.

If you are interested, please call to further discuss my qualifications and how I may be a valuable future member for your team.
