Skills

I have has some extended classes in interviewing and hiring of staff as well as Goal setting and the follow through with staff as well as with the store. Over 15 years of experience with not only the building of a schedule but also the maintaining of one.

I am very good with encouraging the staff to set high expectations for themselves as well as helping them to achieve the goals.

I also took a couple of seminars on problem solving in the work place which extended from staffing, schedules, and customers.
